

RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

You should NOT invest in the investments offered unless you fully understand the risks and are prepared to take the risks. You should carefully consider whether this investment is suitable for you in light of your knowledge and experience in financial and business matters, investment objectives, financial means and the risks that you are prepared to take.

The risks of investing in such securities include but are not limited to the following:

- 100% loss on such investments
There is a high risk that you may lose all your money on such investments. Investments available through this platform/facility may include the Proprietary Trading or securities of companies without a proven track record.
- Difficult to cash in or exit such investments
It may be difficult or even impossible for you to cash in on or exit such investments. Such investments are subject to the overall investment outstanding positions.
- Online platform/ facility failure
If the online platform/facility handles your money, you may also lose all your money in this investment if the online platform/facility fails and becomes insolvent.
- Risk of investing in foreign issuers
If such investments are offered by an issuer in a foreign jurisdiction, your investment will be subject to the laws and regulations of that jurisdiction. You may also be subject to additional tax liabilities, transaction costs and capital controls.
- No disclosure requirements
You may not have sufficient information to make fully informed investment decisions. There is no statutory obligation for issuers or intermediaries to provide you with information that you would reasonably require to make informed assessments of offers being made to you.
- No assurance that financial statements from the companies that you invest in will be accurate or accessible
The financial statements of the companies which you invest in may not be subject to a statutory audit. As such, the financial information presented to you may not have been ascertained by a qualified professional auditor. An unaudited financial statement may not accurately reflect the financial health of a company. In addition, the financial statements of the companies may not be made accessible to you in the absence of requirements in their home country for them to do so.

You should seek independent professional advice if you do not fully understand the risks of investing in securities offered on this platform/facility or any of the statements above.
